From the conjugation of the verb "to be" to a study of Shakespeare's Macbeth, the English Department strives to give us the broadest possible language background.

Since four years of English are required for graduation, we spend many long hours studying both literature and grammar.

Observation and Experimentation in Science forms the basis of all life; therefore, it forms a very important part of the student's education. Beginning in the ninth grade, general science is studied, which forms the basis for the more complicated sciences of biology, physics, and chemistry.

Algebra furnishes a background for all other mathematics. After two years of algebra, a student may take geometry, trigonometry, or advanced algebra.

Agriculture, Home Economics, and Business Give

The Home Economics Department specializes in turning out one main product—a happy, well-rounded girl, who will be able to take her place with ease as wife, mother, and citizen in the future.

Vocational Agriculture encourages the devlopment of agricultural leadership, co-operation, and citizenship as it trains students for useful and highly skilled vocations.

Business courses help us gain skill and proficiency in business subjects and help us to develop the ability to think and work rapidly and accurately. These characteristics will be of help to us in our future careers.

Home and Life Relationships

FHA

Homemaking endeavors to teach the art of making a happy and comfortable home. It draws upon science, art, social science, psychology, and mathematics for a combined knowledge from many fields to solve home-life problems. It emphasizes such practices as food preparation, clothing construction, wise purchasing habits, caring for children, maintenance of good family relationships, budgeting of time and energy, good citizenship, and the importance of taking an active part in social and civic affairs in the community.

SANDRA OWENS, President; CAROL McCLEES, Vice-President; NELLIE BALL, Secretary and Treasurer; NANCY OWENS, Reporter; ABBIE KAY HARRELL, Song Leader; and PATRICIA BASNIGHT, Pianist, were chosen as this year's FHA leaders. MRS. COMBS serves as adviser to this group.

Skills Through Learning and Working

FFA

Future Farmers of America work to promote a complete life for all its members and their community. Learning to take orders and to work together in groups is the guiding principle behind the FFA. Members of the FFA have the opportunity to learn public speaking, group organization, and the proper way to conduct meetings by parliamentary procedure. These things teach the members of the FFA how to get things accomplished in their community through co-operation and service.

Chosen as this year's leaders for FFA were MIKE COHOON, President; DALLAS SIMMONS, Vice-President; BILLY BRICKHOUSE, Secretary; GORDON HOPKINS, Treasurer; LARRY COMSTOCK, Reporter; and ROY BATEMAN, Sentinel. MR. RIDDICK serves as adviser to this group.

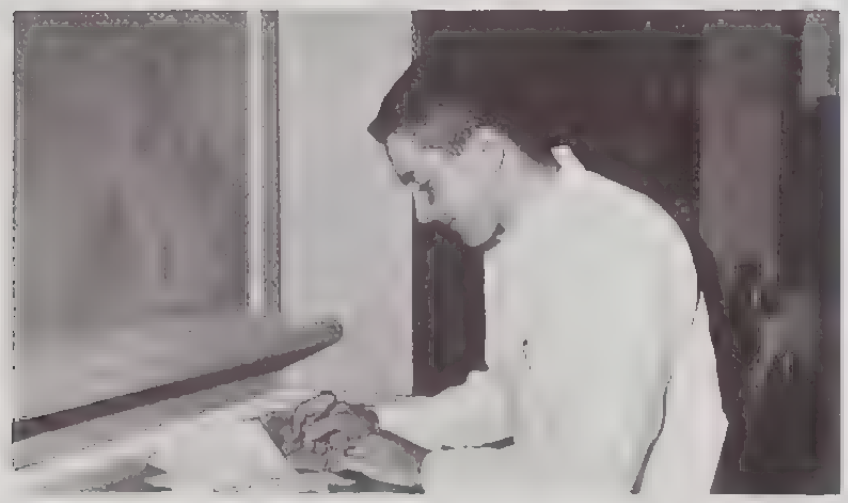
Publications

Publications at Columbia High School center around the COLUMBIAN and the CATS' WHISPERS. The Journalism Class, into whose hands the responsibility of these two publications fall, consists of NELLIE BALL, ASHLEY HARDISON, POLLY LUDFORD, SANDRA OWENS, and EDDIE PHELPS. Work begins in early summer with the selling of advertisements for the annual and ends at the end of school with the senior edition of the newspaper.



Monogram Club

The Monogram Club is composed of members who have lettered in football, basketball, or baseball and who possess outstanding qualities of character and sportsmanship.

Boys' and Girls' State

Polly Ludford and Sandra Owens, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and the Columbia Junior Woman's Club, attended Girls' State, June, 1963, at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. At the same time, Charles Patrick (not pictured), Terry Everett, Ashley Hardison, and Rhett White, sponsored by the American Legion, the Columbia Rotary Club, the East Carolina Bank, and the Tyrrell Hardware Company, attended Boys' State at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Marshals

On the basis of their scholastic achievements, Ashley Hardison, Sandra Owens, Nellie Ball, Eddie Phelps, and Iris Liverman were chosen from the Junior Class to serve as marshals for the 1963 Commencement Exercises. The highest scholastic average was held by Ashley Hardison, who served as chief marshal.

NELLIE NEAL BALL

"Where thoughts serenely sweet express
How pure, how dear their dwelling place."—Lord Byron

Whenever there's a job to be done, an errand to be run, or just a few comforting words to brighten someone's mood, Nellie Ball can always be counted on to do her best. During her four years of high school, Nellie has reigned as Homecoming Queen and held many other outstanding positions—too numerous to name. Being friendly, sincere, co-operative, studious, and active, she has been a real contribution to her class. Nellie will be found doing her best in whatever field her career may lead.

Outstanding Senior

ASHLEY GLENN HARDISON

"Everywhere in life, the true question is not what we gain, but what we do."—Carlyle

Being level-headed, sincere, friendly, studious, talkative, and active, it is no wonder that Ashley Hardison was chosen an Outstanding Senior. As one of the hardest workers in the senior class, Ashley has earned his splendid grades with determination. Habitually number one in grades, and at least that high in the opinion of his classmates, he will be a great success wherever he goes. His future plans include going to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to study business.

Senior Outstanding

SANDRA LYNN OWENS

"Come forth, and bring with you a heart
That watches and receives."—Wordsworth

Intelligent, exuberant, vivacious, friendly, charming, attractive—all of these make up the image of Sandra Owens. A versatile, active student, she has served as an officer in several organizations and has been an energetic assistant in school projects and functions. Sandra hopes to continue her studies and pursue a career in primary education.

Outstanding Senior

JAMES EDMOND PHELPS

"Never idle a moment, but thrifty and thoughtful of others."—Longfellow

Personality plus, that's Eddie Phelps. Students like Eddie are hard to find. No matter how busy or how deeply engrossed in thinking, he always finds time to be courteous, kind, and thoughtful of others. He is a quiet person who leads by listening to others. His citizenship, his neat appearance, his cheerfulness, and his friendly manner are his trademarks.

SCUPPERNONG POST NO. 182 THE AMERICAN LEGION

For God and country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the constitution of the United States of America; To maintain law and order; To foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; To preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the Great Wars; To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; To combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; To make right the Master of Might; To promote peace and good will on earth; To safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; To consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.
